

X-ITING times

One of the few shops selling fireworks exclusively, X-ITING fireworks is going into its 16th year and is better than ever. They are stockists of the larger brands of fireworks that includes TNT, Black Cat, Absolute fireworks and now introducing Brothers and Emperor fireworks to their range. Their products all have videos online at their website x-itingfireworks.co.uk or you can pop into the store where they are happy to help.

Dressed to impress

MINI resident

Online children's boutique Niddle Noddle has just opened the doors to their first brick and mortar shop in Crouch End, selling a wide range of toys, clothes, shoes and accessories to meet every budget. Beautifully decorated, it has the feel of walking into a child's bedroom with the added bonus of being able to take home your favourite piece.

Calming effect

Not everyone loves fireworks. Broadway Pet Stores say: 'Remember to bring your pets inside during firework season and, if necessary, we have pheromones or herbal treatments to calm dogs or cats.' A fantastic find in Muswell Hill, Broadway Pet Stores is a long-established, family-run business offering good quality products and advice.

Winter warmers

Pop into Soup Dragon this season for some fantastic collections of childrenswear for 0-10-year-olds. They have raincoats, wellies, pyjamas and slippers from Hatley, vibrant winter coats from Lego to brighten the dullest of days, and lots of lovely fleeces, tops, dresses and trousers from Joules and Maxomorra. There's also a great selection of Barts' hats and mittens to keep them warm all through the winter.
